Please note that Ullswater Community College cannot remove contact details from its records for anyone who has parental responsibility without first receiving written evidence that this contact no longer has parental responsibility for the student.

All birth mothers have parental responsibility unless removed by adoption or restricted by a court order.

Fathers have parental responsibility if they were married to the birth mother at the time of birth, their name is on the birth certificate or they have acquired it through the courts. Written evidence, therefore, must be in the form of a legal document, birth certificate or court order.
